

Curator I acquires, manages, researches, and promotes objects representing Ohio history. Experience managing agricultural and industrial objects; knowledge of Ohio history, pre-statehood to the Civil War or American Indian history, preferred.

- Communicates with donors; recommends acquisitions.
- Develops collecting plans; recommends deaccessions.
- Evaluates objects for loans; ensures proper handling and storage; assists with inventories.
- Participates in exhibit research, writing and installation.
- Gives public programs.
- Travel to sites; transporting objects.

Requires degree in museum studies or related field plus one- three years experience.

Send cover letter, resume, salary requirements and references to: applicant@ohiohistory.org or fax to 614-297-2293. See full job description: <https://www.ohiohistory.org/getattachment/about-us/jobs/Curator-I.pdf>