

KALAMAZOO INSTITUTE OF ARTS

Kalamazoo Institute of Arts (KIA), Kalamazoo, MI seeks Director of Museum Education to oversee all aspects of Museum Education department functions including art library, museum programs and services. The Director of Museum Education leads department efforts to make the KIA the region's recognized leader and partner in visual arts education. To support this effort s/he advocates for and supports the creation of programming that invites and embraces the entire community. The Director of Education will be encouraged to champion experimental and innovative thinking and fresh approaches to art education. The full position description can be found at www.kiarts.org.