

We are seeking a full-time Assistant Curator of Public Programs at the Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago to apply knowledge and experience of the visual arts, visual and critical theory, popular culture, art history, and an awareness of other creative practices and culture to assist and produce all MCA public programs to create more audience-engaged practices and opportunities. They will take the lead in producing and executing talks, conferences, participatory artist projects, large-scale programs, and related learning activities primarily for adult audiences of both specialist and non-specialist interests.

To see the full posting and apply, please go to <https://mcachicago.org/About/Employment>.