

Association of African American Museums Annual Awards 2017

The Margaret T. G. Burroughs and Charles H. Wright Fellowship

The Margaret T. G. Burroughs and Charles H. Wright Fellowship is awarded to a senior-level undergraduate or graduate student. The Burroughs-Wright Fellowship will cover registration for the 2017 AAAM Annual Conference in Washington DC (July 31-August 3), accommodations at the conference hotel, and a 2017 membership to the Association of African American Museums. Recipients are recognized during the AAAM Awards Luncheon.

Submit completed applications to: AAAM Awards Committee aaamconference@gmail.com by MAY 1, 2017

2017 Margaret T. G. Burroughs and Charles H. Wright Fellowship Nomination Form

NAME OF NOMINEE (Prefix/First/Last/Suffix):

Name of College or University:

Year of Study/Student Classification:

Major Area of Study:

Mailing Address (City/State/Zip Code):

Email/Phone Number:

- Have you previously attended an AAAM conference? No Yes Dates
- Are you a current member of AAAM? No Yes (AAAM Membership #)
- Please include a current resume
- Please include two (2) Letters of Recommendation (include names below) from persons who are best equipped to speak to your skills, interests, accomplishments, and goals to date.
 - Recommendation 1:
 - Recommendation 2:
- On the next page, please provide a one-page statement essay describing how your conference participation will enhance your overall career goals in the museum field. Please include

Submit completed applications to: AAAM Awards Committee aaamconference@gmail.com by MAY 1, 2017

professional development experience(s) in a museum or museum-related areas (include special courses, workshops, civic awards, volunteer experiences, etc.)

2017 Margaret T. G. Burroughs and Charles H. Wright Fellowship Essay