

Assistant/Associate Curator

The Assistant/Associate Curator conceptualizes, develops, researches and organizes small scale exhibitions with a focus on of contemporary art/artists and Hammer Projects. Works closely with the Chief Curator and curatorial team on the development and execution of larger exhibitions and projects. Position also coordinates incoming traveling exhibitions; supports the development of exhibition-related publications such as brochures and catalogues; drafts and coordinates exhibition tour proposal materials. Also participates in acquisitions process for the Hammer Contemporary Collection and other curatorial department initiatives. Represents the Museum to the outside community - in particular with artists, galleries and donors, and interacts frequently with visitors, scholars, and students through public programs, including exhibition tours and public talks.

Application: visit UCLA Career Opportunities and search the campus job openings for Requisition # 25264. Please submit online application as instructed. Due to the volume of resumes that we receive, we are regretfully unable to respond to phone calls and emails regarding the status of applications and the recruiting process.