

Roots of Revolution: Reaching Back | Pushing Forward
MUSEUM EDUCATORS PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP
Mississippi Museum of Art | Jackson, MS
WEDNESDAY, AUG 7 | 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

ACTIVATE, LISTEN, EMPOWER:
A Special Workshop for Museum Educators

AGENDA

- Welcome /Icebreaker
 - Hannah Wallace, African American Museum in Philadelphia
 - Charles Woods, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute
- Commemorating 400 Years of Survival (1619 – 2019)
 - Eola Dance, Colonial National Historic Site, National Park Service
 - Challenges and opportunities linked to 1619 commemorations
 - New resources released by the National Park Service
- A Tale of Two Collections
 - Contrasting the collections of Tougaloo College and the Mississippi Museum of Art
 - Guided Tour experience of the Mississippi Museum of Art's collection and ongoing collaboration with the Tougaloo College Archive and Museum
- Lunch (onsite)
 - Included with Workshop Registration Fee
- Africa and Africans: *Under the Light: Africa before the Slave Trade
 - Lecture with Interactive drum and dance clinic experience
 - Alkebulan Music Philosophy will present a brief lecture on Africa pre-Europe and an interactive workshop with drumming and dance styles from West Africa that were used for specific purposes
- Self-Care Session for Museum Educators
 - Caring for self when facilitating difficult conversations
 - Pursuing racial healing and reconciliation
 - Listening session to re-establish a community of practice among AAAM Museum Educators