The Association of African American Museums Annual Conference

offers a variety of sponsorship opportunities, providing a level to meet every budget! Aligning a sponsorship with your brand forges awareness of your business, designed to meet your marketing goals and give your institution additional exposure.

Why Sponsor?

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP AND DECISION MAKERS – AAAM brings together national leaders, policymakers, historic institution leaders, higher education institutions and other organizations all under one roof to discuss vital issues facing the field.

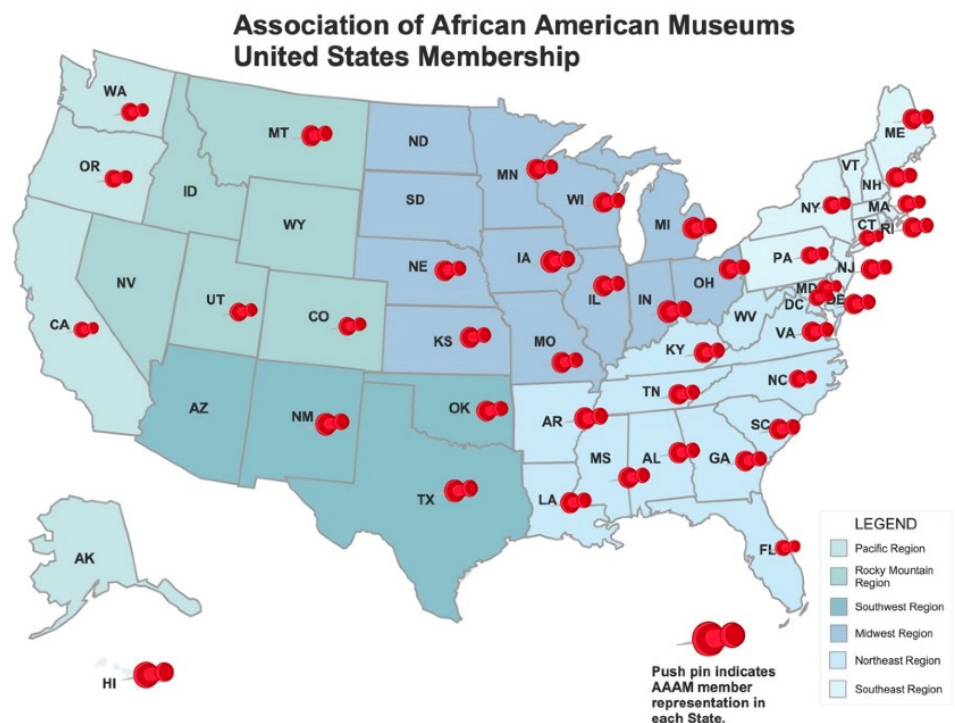

MAJOR INFLUENCERS – Our conference is customized for museum professionals and invested individuals, influencers, policymakers and practitioners. The boutique structure of the AAAM interactive networking and leadership skill sessions, draws attendees who understand the importance of preserving history throughout the world.

Founded in 1978, the Association of African American Museums (AAAM) is a non-profit member organization established to support African and African American focused museums nationally and internationally. AAAM continues to be the principal voice of the African American museum movement. The organization seeks to strengthen and advocate for the interests of institutions and individuals committed to the preservation of African-derived cultures. The services provided by AAAM enhance the ability of its members to serve the needs of anyone who wishes to know more about the art and history of African-derived cultures. AAAM is the premier and only association dedicated to supporting African and African focused museums.

Exponential membership growth for AAAM over the past several years.

- 2018: 347 Members
- 2019: 427 Members
- 2020: 625 Members
- 2021: 1,086 Members
- 2022: 1,172 Members

International membership in AAAM has grown to include institutions from Senegal, Panama, Tanzania, Japan, Iraq, Nigeria, and Canada (not listed in US map).

We welcome you to make a sponsorship commitment.
